Lecture 20- Sacraments, Weddings & Funerals, & Resources

And as our Lord Jesus Christ, not content with having once offered his body and blood upon the cross for the forgiveness of our sins, has also destined them to us as nourishment for eternal life, so grant us of thy goodness, that we may receive this great blessing with true sincerity of heart and ardent desire, and endued with sure faith, enjoy together his body and blood, or rather himself entire... that we may no longer live in ourselves, and after our own will, which is altogether depraved, but he may live in us, and conduct us to a holy, happy, and everlasting life, thus making us truly partakers of the new and eternal covenant, even the covenant of grace.

From John Calvin, for use in the dispensing of the Lord’s Supper, in “Forms of Prayer for the Church.”

Key Concepts
• Sacraments – Administration in context of corporate worship
• Weddings and funerals
• Finding worship resources

Lecture Objectives
• Leading a wedding or funeral service
• Look at the use of the sacraments in worship
• Understanding Calvin’s view of Christ’s true presence in the Lord’s Supper

Preliminary Questions
• What do you think is most important to remember when leading a funeral service? What about a wedding service?
• What is the best way to set the tone for a coming to the Lord’s Supper, if it is to be a “celebration” (and not just a remembrance)?
• How would you encourage people to “remember their baptism”, and what does that mean for you?

G. Christ’s presence in Lord’s Supper
   1. Calvin – “true presence” (Calhoun) – Harmony of Gospels 3:136:
      It is a mistake “to imagine any other kind of eating than that which draws into us the life of Christ by the secret power of the Spirit, and which we obtain by faith alone.”
   2. The Holy Spirit “unites things separated in space” through the vehicle of the Lord’s Supper and by His descent effects communion with the whole person of Christ in lifting us up to heaven
   3. “Sursum Corda”: “Lift up your hearts!” – “We lift them up to You Lord!”
      Westminster Shorter Catechism

#91: How do the sacraments become effectual means of salvation?
The sacraments become effectual means of salvation, not from any virtue in them, or in him that doth administer them; but only by the blessing of Christ, and the working of his Spirit in them that by faith receive them.

#92: What is a Sacrament?
A sacrament is an holy ordinance instituted by Christ; wherein, by sensible signs, Christ, and the benefits of the new covenant, are represented, sealed, and applied to believers.

#93: Which are the sacraments of the New Testament?
The sacraments of the New Testament are, Baptism, and the Lord’s supper.

#94: What is baptism?
Baptism is a sacrament, wherein the washing with water in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, doth signify and seal our ingrafting into Christ, and partaking of the benefits of the covenant of grace, and our engagement to be the Lord’s.
#95: To whom is baptism to be administered?
Baptism is not to be administered to any that are out of the visible church, till they profess their faith in Christ, and obedience to him; but the infants of such as are members of the visible church are to be baptized.

#96: What is the Lord’s supper?
The Lord’s supper is a sacrament, wherein, by giving and receiving bread and wine, according to Christ’s appointment, his death is showed forth; and the worthy receivers are, not after a corporal and carnal manner, but by faith, made partakers of his body and blood, with all his benefits, to their spiritual nourishment, and growth in grace.

#97: What is required to the worthy receiving of the Lord’s supper?
It is required of them that would worthily partake of the Lord’s upper, that they examine themselves of their knowledge to discern the Lord’s body, of their faith to feed upon him, of their repentance, love, and new obedience; lest, coming unworthily, they eat and drink judgment to themselves.
