Analyze each preacher's sermon and place an "x" in the column that best describes the work.

Preaching Outcomes	Rubric				Comments
	1 Novice	2 Intermediate	3 Proficient	4 Distinguished
Exegetical Accuracy - Preacher articulates a correct and robust presentation of doctrines derived from the text of Scripture.
Structure - Preacher structures his sermon with a clear introduction, body, and conclusion that form a cohesive and unified message. Transitions are well organized so that each point and subpoint are logically related to their main point.
Effectiveness of Illustrations - Preacher provides clear and appropriate illustrations that add vibrancy and clarity to the sermon rather than distracting from it.
Appropriate Applications - Preacher offers points of application that are relevant and compelling to the specific audience, moving the sermon from merely content delivery to the imperatives of Christian living.
Sermon Delivery - Preacher demonstrates excellence in all aspects of delivery including, but not limited to, gestures, tone, pace, length of sermon, transitions, clarity, pitch, eye contact, facial expressions, humility, earnestness, simplicity, humor, energy, passion, etc.
Pastoral Authority - Preacher evidences passionate pastoral authority and visible confidence in Scripture.
