

GOSPEL
SOCIETY
& Culture

AND PRESENT...

NAVIGATE: MINISTRY AFTER SAME SEX MARRIAGE

A ONE DAY CONFERENCE FOR CHRISTIAN LEADERS

DATE: Thursday, March 1; 9am followed by dinner 6:30

WHY COME TO NAVIGATE?

Hear experienced Christian leaders and thinkers on the social and cultural developments which will come from same sex marriage, and the implications for Christian ministry. Navigate offers clear biblical thinking, up to date information and a gospel focus; with plenty of time for questions, discussion and prayer.

WHO IS NAVIGATE FOR?

Ministers, elders, youth leaders, ministry leaders, small group leaders, chaplains, teachers and anyone leading in churches and Christian ministry.

VENUE: Christ College, and Burwood RSL for dinner.

PRICES

Full price $100

Day only (no dinner) $60

Student (day only) $30

Student (with dinner) $70

TO REGISTER VISIT:
WWW.TRYBOOKING.COM/TWVS

Rosaria Butterfield, author, speaker, homemaker and former professor of English

Dan Strange, former of Oakhill Theological College, London

Peter Jensen, former Anglican Archbishop of Sydney and General Secretary of GAFCON (Global Anglican Future Conference)

Michael Kellahan, Executive Director of Freedom for Faith

Peter Thompson, Minister of Southern Cross Presbyterian Church, Lismore

Peter Currie, Minister of Woonona Presbyterian Church

Sandy McMillan, Minister of Drummoyne Presbyterian Church and GSC Committee member

John McClean, Convenor of the GSC Committee and Christ College lecturer

The Gospel Coalition Australia and GS&C are partners in presenting NAVIGATE. Gospel, Society and Culture is a Committee of the Presbyterian Church of NSW.

NAVIGATE: MINISTRY AFTER SAME SEX MARRIAGE

PROGRAMME

9:00 WELCOME

LOOK OUT

John McClean, Convenor of the GSC Committee and Christ College lecturer will set the scene, pointing out the challenges of ministry in changing cultural terrain.

THINK

Dan Strange, Principal of Oakhill Theological College, London, will speak live from London about the theological challenges faced by English churches and what we can learn from their experience.

10:30-11:00 MORNING TEA

ENGAGE

Michael Kellahan, Executive Director of Freedom for Faith will outline the legal challenges for Christian ministry and update us on the current political situation.

REACH OUT

Rosaria Butterfield, author, speaker, homemaker and former professor of English will speak live from North Carolina to share her insights into reaching out to the LGBT community.

1:00-1:50 LUNCH

CARE

Peter Thompson, Minister of Southern Cross Presbyterian Church, Lismore, will help us understand how to support Christians who are same sex attracted.

PREACH

Peter Currie, Minister of Woonona Presbyterian Church, will encourage us to take on the challenge to preach and teach about the increasingly contested topic of marriage.

GET READY

Sandy McMillan, Minister of Drummoyne Presbyterian Church and GSC Committee member, will get us started talking about the nuts and bolts pastoral challenges of leading churches, discipling Christians of all ages and reaching Australian communities.

PRAY

The conference closes with time for feedback, discussion and prayer.

6:30 DINNER WITH PETER JENSEN

The Conference Dinner at Burwood RSL will provide a chance to continue conversations. Peter Jensen will speak on "Being Kept in the Dark".